

Hopkinsville Kentuckian.

CHAS. M. MEACHAM, Editor.
TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1890.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY.

A live and growing city of 4,000 inhabitants, situated in a county of 40,000. The Louisville and Nashville has two lines of railroad in the county and the people have recently voted aid to two new roads. Largest tobacco growing county in the world. Wheat, corn, hay, coal, livestock and fruits produced for export in large quantities. The city has four banks with an aggregate capital of $1,000,000. A planing mill and wagon factory, three carriage factories, line factory, tobacco manufactory, two foundries, three brickyards, broom factory, steam laundry, ice factory, two large flouring mills in the city and several in the county. Splendid driving park and fine country. Five turnpikes centering in Hopkinsville. Building and Loan Association, Commercial Club, a telephone exchange, numbered streets and houses and city lighted by gas. Macadamized streets and brick sidewalks all over the city. Eleven churches, two colleges, a high school and the first system of public schools, white and colored, in the State. West Kentucky Lunatic Asylum with a population of 600, two miles east of the city. A 100,000 acre tract with town clock in the dome. A fine fire department and a company of State Guards. Little river furnishes an adequate supply of water for all purposes. Real estate low and rents cheap. Fine opening for woolen mill, pork packing establishment, fruit canner, tannery and many other enterprises. Climate mild and invigorating and exceedingly healthful.

The Clinton Democrat has put in a new Campbell press and an Acme paper cutter.

The Kentucky Prohibitionists in convention at Louisville nominated Adam Cobb for State Treasurer, election next August.

A little three-year-old child of Mr. G. E. Johnson, telegraph editor of the Courier-Journal, died of diphtheria a few days ago.

The Prohibitionists held a national gathering at Louisville last week, which was attended by 500 delegates from all over the country.

The Clarksville Cultivator, reported as dead, is still appearing as usual and denies most emphatically that it has ever suspended publication.

A man named Chew got two votes for Senator in the West Virginia Saturday. Why not choose Mr. Chew and give the paragraphers a fresh subject?

John C. Klein, the American newspaper correspondent who figured in the Suiwon troubles, has arrived at San Francisco. He left Samoa Feb. 1st, to escape arrest by the Germans.

Bishop H. N. McTear, the head of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, died at Nashville Friday, after a long illness. He was 65 years of age and had been a Bishop for 23 years.

Mrs. Cleveland held her last public reception—for this term, at least—last Saturday. She was assisted by several ladies, including Mrs. C. L. man, wife of the now Secretary of Agriculture.

Most of the packers of lake ice in the Northern lake regions are reported as having filled their houses and will be able to supply all demands next summer, even if there should be no other ice.

Streeter, the Labor candidate for President, wants the Prohibition and Union Labor parties to consolidate and endorse each other's platform on certain questions pertaining to liquor and labor.

Mrs. Chas. M. Hanter and Geo. H. Krenn, both of them married, who eloped from Austin, Tex., Jan. 16, have been arrested at Memphis, where they had married and gone to house-keeping Jan. 29.

The Supreme Court of Tennessee has sustained the claim of Evans, Italian, in the Bates-Evans contest, in the Chattanooga Congressional district, and the certificate has been issued to him by Gov. Taylor.

The latest revised Cabinet alphabet includes the names of Blaine, State; Windom, Treasury; Rusk, War; Thomas, Navy; Noble, Interior; Eide, Justice; Wauwacker, Post-office; Miller, Agriculture. With one or two exceptions these are regarded as certainties.

Frank Gregory, late managing editor of Louisville Commercial, has become editorially connected with the Owensboro Messenger, already one of the best papers in the State. Gregory will improve any paper he writes for.

An esteemed Louisville correspondent warmly urges the name of Hon. J. A. McKee for Governor. Mr. McKee's friend are divided as to what he should have, but all agree that the time has come when a fitting recognition of his great party services should be made.—Owensboro Messenger.

A test case against the sureties on Tate's bond was called in the Franklin Circuit Court Saturday. The general opinion is that the State will not be able to recover anything from the sureties, from the fact that Tate's accounts were examined annually and certified to as correct by the proper officers.

A. N. Taylor, of Fort Worth, Tex., formerly editor of a paper at Fulton, came near dying last week from poison taken into his system from incessant smoking of cigarettes. This is the story as it is going the rounds, but we are unwilling to believe that any man who has ever been a Kentucky editor could fall so low as to become a cigarette smoker. There must be some mistake about it.

The editor of the Fulton Fultonian boastfully announced the other day that Western Kentucky was leaving the rest of the state far behind in progress and development. The Georgetown Times copied his remarks and added:

"Get out!" You were never in Central Kentucky and know nothing about our railroads, fine schools, fine stock, good people and pretty women. Come up and see us."

The interesting part of this little dialogue lies in the fact that the name of one of the prettiest girls in Scott county appears at the head of the editorial column of the Times. Go, young man, by all means, go.

The combination horse sale closed at Lexington Saturday with the sale of 73 horses for $14,775. No high-priced animals were sold, offerings being mostly road and carriage horses. During the six days sale 469 head were sold for $181,710, an average of $387. Woodard's big sale of 800 head began yesterday, during which he will bring, the popular estimate being about $60,000.

The Henderson News says: It is generally understood and taken for granted in the southern and western part of the State that Hon. James A. McKee will be a favorite candidate to succeed Gov. Buckner as Governor of Kentucky. His ability and long service to the Democracy render his candidacy peculiarly favorable and strong.

In the West Virginia legislature Friday Kenna received 42 and Goff 42 votes. Goff, Democrat, who might have elected Kenna voted for a man named Lee, which was rather odd treatment for his party nominee. Carr and Kirk, Laborites, voted for Goff. On Saturday the Labor vote left the other candidates and Kenna received 39, Goff 39, and Lee 3. Chew 2.

The Lewisport Post is the name of a new paper started in Hancock county by Geo. F. Swint.

SEEKING PLACES.

Dr. Young Likely to Have His Measure Taken For a Good Fat Office.

As the time approaches for the inauguration ceremonies, the office-seekers are laying wires and their hearts grow heavy with anxiety. Quite a number of our Republican friends are circulating petitions for appointment and even some Democrats hope to retain their portion of the pie.

The present Examining Board for Peasants, consisting of Drs. Dullin, Blakey and Dennis, petition to be retained and Mr. Coombs has been circulating a petition among ex-Federal soldiers asking their retention, meeting with some success. Dr. Seargent, the Democratic member of the old board, will ask re-appointment and is backed by some influential Republicans. Dr. Jas. A. Young, the surviving Republican member, has been suspiciously quiet and either thinks he has a sure thing on being re-appointed or else means to strike higher. We hear a whisper that in case a certain politician said to be on the state is called to the treasury department Dr. Young will ask a high position among the medical appointments from the government and we say without reserve that if this is the case we know of no one better fitted to fill one than he. Dr. Young received a liberal education at B. Thany College and the Kentucky University and graduated in Medicine at Hahnemann College, Philadelphia. In addition to this he spent some months a few years ago in attendance upon the clinic and hospitals of Cincinnati, attending St. Mary's, the City and the Good Samaritan hospitals and the Surgical clinic of Drs. Muesey and Dawson; the clinics on Women and Children of Drs. Keamy and Harris; and the Ear, Nose and Throat by Drs. Sealy and McDermott. Two years subsequently he visited the hospitals of St. Louis, attending the best clinics in the city. Dr. Young filled the place of examining surgeon for pensions for 13 years, examining in one year 800 applicants and more than 5,000 during his term of office. Few men in the profession, of his age, have had the advantages he has, and he stands deservedly high as a diagnostician and practitioner. The profession in both schools concede his ability and attainments and would join in saying that he is competent to fill any position the coming administration may give him.

TOBACCO NEWS.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2844 hds. with receipts of 1857 hds. for the same period. Sales on our market since January 1st, amount to 14583 hds. Sales of the crop of 1888 to date amount to 14893 hds. The offering of dark tobacco this week have embraced some tobacco of good quality which was in active demand at full prices, but the short and medium leaf as well as lugs have been irregular and somewhat weaker but without any decided decline. The following quotations fairly represent our market for dark tobacco both old and new.

Trask $1.00 to 2.00.
Common to Medium Lugs $3.00 to 2.75.
Dark Rich Lugs extra quality $2.75 to 3.75.
Common Leaf $3.50 to 4.50.
Medium to Good Leaf $4.50 to 5.50.
Good leaf extra length $5.50 to 7.50.

Immigrants and returning voyagers find in Ayer's Sarsaparilla a cure for eruptions, boils, pimples, eczema, etc., whether resulting from sea-sickness and life on ship-board, or from any other cause. It is a tonic and alterative medicine cannot be over-estimated.

KENTUCKY KNOWLEDGE.

Elizabethown owes only $24,000. A K. of P. lodge will be instituted at Central City to-night.

Hannah Robinson, a colored woman, was found dead in Paducah.

John Reavly, of Daviess county, lost his residence by fire. Loss $1,200.

G. W. Bates has entered the race for the State Senate in the Owensboro district.

Geo. Lewis, a colored deck hand, fell into the hatch way of an Ohio boat and killed himself.

A 14-year-old boy named Butter-backer, accidentally shot and killed himself near Shelbyville.

Near Owensboro, Fred Martin, a farmer, blew out the place where his brains ought to have been.

John and Enos Howard killed Columbus Osborne in Harlan county in a row over a moonshine still.

The tobacco barn of David Nelson, near Princeton, burned with 3,000 pounds of tobacco, uninsured.

Chas. J. O'Malley, the Union county poet, is a candidate to represent his county in the next legislature.

Geo. Mathews died at Louisville from wounds received in a saloon fight with John Quinn. Quinn is at large.

Mrs. Christy Bush, of Hardin county, sold 1510 pounds of butter last year, from which she realized $349.85. Her cows are not lost.

A little son of H. C. Atwood, of Barren county, shot and killed his infant sister while fooling with a gun. The boy was only seven years old.

The Marion county turnpikes are having trouble over a new rule to collect full rates every way from the doctors. The doctors demand free toll on charity visits.

The Sturgis Enterprise gives Gov. Jordan Giles, of the Ohio Valley railroad company, as authority for the statement that that road will soon be extended as far south as Sheffield, Alabama.

A brass hall on the cupola of the Glasgow court house still shows a number of holes shot into it by Texas Rangers in 1861, who did it to display their marksmanship, while standing about the streets.

Two cerebral spinal meningitis epidemic has again broken out near Bozville and Tilden, Webster county. Nearly thirty have died from it already, including Napoleon Asher's entire family of eight persons.

The town Marshal organized a posse and raided four "billard tigers" in Central City and lodged the proprietors in jail. Their names were Dennis Owen, Sam Pickett, Bill Hinnormann and T. R. Clements.

BEVERLY SPARKS.

BEVERLY, Feb. 16.—Mr. J. H. Bradshaw visited friends here Thursday. Mrs. J. H. Bradshaw, who has been in a critical condition, is recovering slowly.

Mrs. Jesse titles in convalescing after a protracted spell of pneumonia. The party given at Mr. John Browning's residence, last Tuesday was immensely enjoyed by the young people who had the opportunity to exchange one smile in every half an hour with their best girl.

Commercial men were here in "squad" daily this week, among whom were, H. A. Cragin, representing Murray, Dierck & Co. Nashville; Solomon Kolynsky, from St. Mosca & Co. Cincinnati; O. J. K. McGowan of W. C. & C. Warren, Louisville; Ky, and Col. John P. Ye, who was talking up his Philadelphia clothing house. Mr. Pyle looks good enough to eat, but he says no other drummer can cook him.

Rev. Wm. Mobley, of Todd county, visited his daughter Mrs. Dr. Kenner last week.

Wheat is looking as green as it usually looks in April. Farmers are making preparations for a large crop.

Rumor says the ball, which was given at Howell last week was a grand success. Mr. Gus Combs of this district "was there" by a large majority.

Would "scratch" more for your most valuable paper, but I have got some plowing to do before it rains.

CROFTON.

CROFTON, Ky., Feb. 17.—The Mask Ball was a success socially and we understand financially. Among the dancers we noticed Misses Lena Grissam and Mary Rogers, of your city; Misses Leta Armstrong and Lela Murphy and Belle Parker, of Empire; Miss Cora Milligan, of Gallatin, Tenn.; and Messrs. R. H. Harrison, Robt. Baker, Wash. Ehrig and others of Harlington. It was also well attended by our home people and they danced until 2 a. m.!

Some anti-prohibitionists were working the town yesterday but they were met by prohibitionists on every corner, which we think discouraged them very much.

Messrs. Frank Cotton and J. Riley, Long have bought thirty-four county rights for building a patent fence. They will begin the work of selling farm rights at once. Several of our farmers have bought rights and express themselves as well pleased with it.

Mrs. Rosa Coleman is confined to her bed of fever, at her brother-in-law's, Mr. Enoch Walker's.

Mrs. W. M. West, of your city, is visiting her father, Esq. Rice Dullin, here.

The Rev. Sam Small will speak here on temperance at 2 p. m., Monday Feb. 25th. Our people should avail themselves of this opportunity to hear the great evangelist.

Our ladies are making arrangements to have a dinner on the second day of March, which will be free for all.

Quarterly meeting will begin here at the M. E. Church next Thursday night.

Rev. John M. West speaks to-night at the M. E. church, on temperance. Buck.

Renovating Old Clothes.

A man who has recently written very extensively on the subject of men's dress, said yesterday: "The utility and value of a cleaner than most is considered. Many New Yorkers throw a suit of clothes aside or discard a coat or trousers because there is a spot or two, or a stain, and a general indifference about the matter. If they would open negotiations with some little tailor in a side street and have him inspect their clothes regularly once a month and repair the attacks of dust and travel they would find that the improvement, as far as appearance is concerned, would amount to something like seventy-five per cent. A skilful and hard-working tailor can take a disreputable-looking suit of clothes and make them look almost as good as new within three or four days. There are certain properties in soap, water, benzine and the fast iron which are exceedingly valuable, and men who believe in dressing well should remember it.—N. Y. Sun.

"Try Ayer's Pills"

For Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout. Stephen Lanning, of Yonkers, N. Y., says: "Recommended as a cure for chronic Costiveness, Ayer's Pills have relieved me from that trouble and also from Gout. It every victim of this disease would feel only three words of mine, I could banish Gout from the land. These words would be—'Try Ayer's Pills.'"

"By the use of Ayer's Pills alone, I cured myself permanently of rheumatism which had troubled me several months. These Pills are at once laxative and effectual, and I believe, would prove a specific in all cases of rheumatism."

Rheumatism.

No medicine could have cured me but for these pills. C. C. Rock, Corner, Ayer's Pills, La.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for sixteen years, and I think they are the best Pills in the world. We keep a box of them in the house all the time. They have cured my wife of rheumatism and neuralgia. Since taking Ayer's Pills, I have been free from these complaints."

"I have derived great benefit from Ayer's Pills. Five years ago I was taken so ill with rheumatism that I was unable to do any work. I took three boxes of Ayer's Pills and was entirely cured. I am now well and strong without a box of these pills."—Peter Christensen, Sherwood, Wis.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Beach & Bowers' Minstrels.
These who have been "hungry" for a first class minstrel show are to be gratified at last. One of the best of the road is coming next Friday night. The Antioch, Wis., News says:
"Thursday night Antioch had a treat in the way of an entertainment such as it has never had before, being the first appearance of Beach & Bowers' Minstrels. Never has the Opera House been so full, and never has a company played here that so richly deserved it. Unlike most minstrel troupes, the Beach & Bowers company give an entertainment that is devoid of vulgarity and coarseness from beginning to close. Their audience was kept in one continuous roar for nearly two hours. Many of the actors received encore upon encore. We have not space to particularize, but we must say that Beach & Bowers can draw away the hardest attack of blues that ever got hold of men. He makes you laugh in spite of himself because he is there for that purpose." They can rely upon a hearty reception if they ever come this way again.
The Javenport, Iowa, Gazette says:
"There was about standing room at the Opera House last evening, on the occasion of the opening of the season by Beach & Bowers' Minstrels. The audience was a fashionable one, and included many of the most prominent people in the city; and there was not one in the large assembly that did not heartily appreciate the performance, which was first-class in every respect."
Don't forget the date, next Friday, Feb. 22, Washington's Birthday.
Northwestern Towns and Waterworks.
While the people of Hopkinsville have the establishment of waterworks under consideration it will be interesting to note how promptly the young towns of the new territory of Dakota have acted in providing for their wants in this respect. The following are some of the Dakota towns which have established systems of water works electric lights, gas and other city improvements. The populations of the respective places is given. Bismarck, 4,500; Deadwood, 5,000; Rapid City, 5,000; Grand Fork, 7,000; Aberdeen, 6,000; Watertown, 5,000; Huron, 4,000. In all of these towns water works were established long before they had reached their present population. Here lies the secret of Northwestern progress; the people know the worth of these improvements and act upon their knowledge. Hopkinsville should study their example.

COMMERCIAL CLUB ROOM.

To Be Voted Upon.
The Chautauquians have decided to settle the subject of Wendling's lecture on the 25th by a vote of the ticket holders. The lecture agreed upon was "Popular Delusions," but some expressions of preference for "Stone-wall Jackson" having been heard, it was decided to open a book for votes at Hopper Bros', book store. Every person holding a season ticket, or who buys a single ticket, is requested to have his or her vote recorded for whichever one of these lectures is preferred and the one having a majority of the votes Saturday night will be decided upon. Do not fail to cast your vote some day this week.

Black Pepper to Go Up.

Marshal Pepper, col., who is wanted at Springfield, Tenn., for shooting a man about Jan. 20, 1885, was arrested in this city Saturday by policeman Twyman and West. He had been located here some time ago, but had heretofore eluded all officers put on his track. When caught he was engaged in mending up mortar for a brickman. He was sent to jail to await a requisition from Gov. Taylor, as he refused to go to Tennessee without it. His accomplice in the crime for which he is wanted was arrested, tried and is now serving a term in the Tennessee penitentiary.

Mardi Gras Excursions.

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company will sell Round Trip Excursion tickets to Mobile, Alabama, and New Orleans, La., commencing on the Feb. 25th and ending on March 3rd, for one fare. Good to return until March 23rd. These special rates are given to afford all an opportunity to attend Mardi Gras in these cities.

A $9,000 ice factory is to be started at Somerset.

Wendling's lecture on the 25th will be the best of the series, and the last of the season.
Rev. J. C. Buchanan, of Illinois, preached Sunday morning and evening at the C. P. Church.
The Christian County Medical Society met yesterday in the office of Dr. Sargent and Blakey.
Mr. R. F. Hives will build a handsome frame residence near Casey, Forbes & Bro. will do the work.
Dr. R. E. Christie has just received and had put up an elegant prescription case in his drug store.
Hon. Wm. Wharton, of Trigg county, has announced himself a candidate for re-election to the Legislature.
A very pleasant party was indulged in at Mr. W. Southall's, near Newketown, on the night of the 14th inst.

WET AND DRY.

What is Being Done in the Prohibition Contest.
The election comes off one week from next Saturday.
Both sides are confident and excitement is daily increasing.
Luther Benson will lecture at the Court House to-night to men only.
The Dry majority was only 74 in 1886, in a total vote of more 5,814.
The Pembroke Criterion is supporting the Dry side, in the present fight.
Longview and Union School House promise to give tremendous Wet majorities.
The Wets are claiming 500 majority in the Hopkinsville district. The majority in 1886 was 202.
The vote in Hopkinsville before was 891 Wet to 689 Dry. Wet majority 202. Total vote 1,580.
Croton and in fact nearly of the northern districts will probably increase their majorities for the Dry side.
Mrs. Alice Norman will hold a meeting for ladies only at the First Presbyterian Church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.
Rev. Geo. F. Campbell preached at the C. M. E. Church Sunday night on the subject of temperance, by special invitation.

Composition of Natural Gas.

Analysis shows that the average composition of the Pittsburgh natural gas is sixty-seven parts in one hundred of methane gas, twenty-two of hydrogen, three of nitrogen, five of ethyl hydrate, one of olefiant gas, and the remaining two of oxygen, carbonic acid and carbonic oxide. In contrast with this, the gas obtained at Midway, O., is a profligate gas field in the northwestern part of that State, shows as follows: Marsh gas, ninety-three; four of hydrogen, two of oxygen, and the remaining small portions of the other gases mentioned. In 103 liters of Pittsburgh gas, the heat units are calculated at some 789,694, in Midway gas, 878,082, and by way of comparison, in the same quantity of Siemens' producer gas, at 113,000. In generating steam, experiments under various boilers show that 1,000 feet of gas to be equal in heating power to from 89 to 133 pounds of different kinds of coal. One pound of coal equals in value 7 1/2 feet of natural gas; the latter explodes violently when mixed with nine to fourteen parts of air. When burned with pure oxygen, the flame temperature of natural gas is estimated at 7,100 degrees centigrade; and, when it is burned with a quantity of air just sufficient to secure perfect combustion, the temperature is 2,333. C. for natural gas, and 1,700 for Siemens.—N. Y. Sun.

Fourteen out of 29 precincts went Dry. This time there are 25 precincts, Beverly and Oak Grove having been taken from Longview.

Some Fine Fowls.

Considerable interest is being manifested in chicken raising in and about the city and there are a number of yards of purebred fowls. Most of them are kept principally for eggs and the Leghorns are therefore the favorites. Following are some of the yards in which their owners take a good deal of pride:
Jno. M. Morris has 65 Brown Leghorns and will raise them this year on a large scale.
N. Zimmer has about 20 Brown Leghorns and W. S. Davidson has about half as many, and will make a start this year with this breed exclusively.
L. H. McKee has 25 White Leghorns. Dr. Patton has about the same number of White Leghorns and also a pen of Langshans.
John Young has 35 Wyandottes raised from stock bought of W. H. Cooley of Owensboro. They are very fine and Mr. Young thinks the Wyandottes are equal to Leghorns as egg producers.
F. L. Waller, M. H. Nelson, Major Woodridge and O. W. Steinhausen have some fine Games and take considerable pride in breeding them.
There are a good many yards of Plymouth Rocks, which are considered by many the best of all for general utility purposes.

WET AND DRY.

What is Being Done in the Prohibition Contest.
The election comes off one week from next Saturday.
Both sides are confident and excitement is daily increasing.
Luther Benson will lecture at the Court House to-night to men only.
The Dry majority was only 74 in 1886, in a total vote of more 5,814.
The Pembroke Criterion is supporting the Dry side, in the present fight.
Longview and Union School House promise to give tremendous Wet majorities.
The Wets are claiming 500 majority in the Hopkinsville district. The majority in 1886 was 202.
The vote in Hopkinsville before was 891 Wet to 689 Dry. Wet majority 202. Total vote 1,580.
Croton and in fact nearly of the northern districts will probably increase their majorities for the Dry side.
Mrs. Alice Norman will hold a meeting for ladies only at the First Presbyterian Church this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.
Rev. Geo. F. Campbell preached at the C. M. E. Church Sunday night on the subject of temperance, by special invitation.

Composition of Natural Gas.

Analysis shows that the average composition of the Pittsburgh natural gas is sixty-seven parts in one hundred of methane gas, twenty-two of hydrogen, three of nitrogen, five of ethyl hydrate, one of olefiant gas, and the remaining two of oxygen, carbonic acid and carbonic oxide. In contrast with this, the gas obtained at Midway, O., is a profligate gas field in the northwestern part of that State, shows as follows: Marsh gas, ninety-three; four of hydrogen, two of oxygen, and the remaining small portions of the other gases mentioned. In 103 liters of Pittsburgh gas, the heat units are calculated at some 789,694, in Midway gas, 878,082, and by way of comparison, in the same quantity of Siemens' producer gas, at 113,000. In generating steam, experiments under various boilers show that 1,000 feet of gas to be equal in heating power to from 89 to 133 pounds of different kinds of coal. One pound of coal equals in value 7 1/2 feet of natural gas; the latter explodes violently when mixed with nine to fourteen parts of air. When burned with pure oxygen, the flame temperature of natural gas is estimated at 7,100 degrees centigrade; and, when it is burned with a quantity of air just sufficient to secure perfect combustion, the temperature is 2,333. C. for natural gas, and 1,700 for Siemens.—N. Y. Sun.
